

Table of contents

Series Introduction: Reordering an Imperial Modern Asia

Jack Fairey and Brian P. Farrell

pp. 1–8

Introduction: Making Imperial Asia

Jack Fairey and Brian P. Farrell

pp. 9–14

Chapter 1. Inner Asia, 1100s–1405: The Making of Chinggisid Eurasia

Florence Hodous

pp. 15–42

Chapter 2. The Great Ming and East Asia: The World Order of a Han-Centric Chinese Empire, 1368–1644

Jinping Wang

pp. 43–76

Chapter 3. East Asia under the Expanding Qing

Frederik Vermote

pp. 77–106

Chapter 4. Southwest Asia, 1300–1800: Ottomans, Safavids, and the Turco-Persianate Imperial Tradition

Jack Fairey

pp. 107–140

Chapter 5. South Asia, 1400–1800: The Mughal Empire and the Turco-Persianate Imperial Tradition in the Indian Subcontinent

Murari Kumar Jha

pp. 141–170

Chapter 6. Northern Eurasia, 1300–1800: Russian Imperial Practice from Tsardom to Empire

Paul W. Werth

pp. 171–194

Chapter 7. In Search of “Empire” in Mainland Southeast Asia

Bruce M. Lockhart

pp. 195–214

Chapter 8. In Search of “Empire” in the Insular Malay World

Sher Banu Khan

pp. 215–238

Chapter 9. Iberian Maritime Asia, 1497–1700s: The Portuguese and Spanish Empires in Asia

Anthony Rendell Disney

pp. 239–268

Chapter 10. Chartered Companies and Empire

Peter Borschberg

pp. 269–294