

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments ix

Maps xi

- 1 Introduction: The Architecture of Empire 3
- 2 Ideology and Reality in the French Atlantic Empire 34
- 3 France and Amerindian Architecture, the Amerindian Reductions, and l’Affaire de Kourou 55
- 4 African Slaves and the Architecture of the French Atlantic Empire 93
- 5 Free People of Colour and the Architecture of the French Atlantic Empire 105
- 6 White Civilian Architects and Builders in the Colonies 119
- 7 Building pour la gloire du roi: The Royal Engineer Architects 148
- 8 Putting Their House in Order: Urban Idealism in France and the Seventeenth-Century Colonies 173
- 9 The Planned City in the French Atlantic World, 1700–1789 204
- 10 Urbanism in Eighteenth-Century Saint-Domingue and Public Monuments in the French Atlantic 241
- 11 Formal and Scientific Gardens and Ephemera 279

- 12 Secular Architecture before the Seven Years’ War 323
- 13 Secular Architecture after the Seven Years’ War 355
- 14 Tradition and Innovation in Church Architecture 385
- 15 Italianate Church Facades, Eclecticism, and Neoclassicism from Quebec to Senegal, 1654–1830 412
- 16 The Architecture of the Land: Vernacular Traditions 439
- 17 Epilogue: Circa 1830: The End of an Empire 481

Glossary 489

Timeline 495

Notes 497

Bibliography 585

Index 603