

Contents

List of Figures	vii
Introduction: Slave Narratives in British and French America, 1700–1848	1
TREVOR BURNARD AND SOPHIE WHITE
SECTION ONE
Voices in the Archives	15
1 “Said Without Being Asked”: Slavery, Testimony, and Autobiography	17
SOPHIE WHITE
2 Fictions in the Archives: Jupiter alias Gamelle or the Tales of an Enslaved Peddler in the French New Orleans Court	40
CÉCILE VIDAL
3 Slave Judiciary Testimonies in the French Caribbean: What to Do with Them	58
DOMINIQUE ROGERS
SECTION TWO
Native Americans	79
4 A “Spanish Indian Squaw” in New England: Indian Ann’s Journey from Slavery to Freedom	81
LINFORD D. FISHER

5	In the Borderlands of Race and Freedom (and Genre): Embedded Indian and African Slave Testimony in Eighteenth-Century New England	98
	MARGARET ELLEN NEWELL
6	“She Said Her Answers Contained the Truth”: Listening to and with Enslaved Witnesses in Eighteenth-Century New France	119
	BRETT RUSHFORTH
	SECTION THREE
	African Americans	143
7	Ideologies of the Age of Revolution and Emancipation in Enslaved African Narratives	145
	AARON SPENCER FOGLEMAN
8	Slave Voice and the Legal Archive: The Case of Freedom Suits before the Paris Admiralty Court	165
	MIRANDA SPIELER
9	“I Know I Have to Work”: The Moral Economy of Labor among Enslaved Women in Berbice, 1819–1834	188
	TREVOR BURNARD
10	“An Anomalous Population”: Recaptive Narratives in Antigua and the British Colonial Archive, 1807–1828	204
	ANITA RUPPRECHT
	Conclusion: Slave Testimonies: The Long View	223
	EMILY CLARK
	List of Contributors	237
	Index	241