

Contents

Introduction	1
PART 1: GENERAL IMPACT OF SLAVERY, INDENTURED LABOUR AND MIGRATION
1. Keynote Address There's Nothing as Practical as a Good Theory: Free and Unfree Labour Across the Atlantic STEPHEN SMALL	13
2. Mapping Slavery: A New Approach in History and Memory: Exploring the Potential of Digital Maps DIENKE HONDIUS	21
3. Integration Styles in the Indentured Indian Diaspora CHAN E.S. CHOENNI	35
4. Constructing the Andean Diaspora: State-based and Immigrant-led Development Strategies MARIE D. PRICE	63
PART 2: HEALTH AND DISEASES
5. Imperialist Contradictions: Health Issues and Indentured Indian Labourers RADICA MAHASE	89
6. Health Life in Suriname G.P. OEHLERS, M.Y. LICHTVELD, L.M. BREWSTER, M. ALGOE AND E.R. IRVING	111
7. Opo Yeye – Mental Well-being and Cultural Identity of the Afro-Surinamese: A Slavery-Informed Answer to Living in the Twenty-first Century AMINATA CAIRO	151

PART 3: MAROONS AND MAROON LIFE

8. Finding Maroon Ancestral Settlements in Suriname, South America CHERYL WHITE	179
9. From Primitives to Refugees: French Guianese Categorizations of Maroons in the Aftermath of Surinamese Civil War CLÉMENCE LÉOBAL	197
10. Governing Ndyuka Society Abroad: The Council of Kabiten and Basiya of Okanisi in The Netherlands INE APAPOE	213
11. Marooned Slaves of Esmeraldas: Survival, Autonomy and Spanish Authority, 1553-1600 LAURA MOULTON	231
List of Contributors	257
Index	263