

Contents

List of Illustrations	vii
Introduction	I
Sarah Wood and Catriona MacLeod
Part I: Imagining the Tropics: Writing on and from Guyane
1. The Oldest Daughter of Overseas France	17
Richard Price
2. Grand Reporters in Guyane: Bringing the Exotic Back Home	33
Kari Evanson
3. Kor and Karnival, the Carnal Road of Léon-Gontran Damas: 'Evidence of Things Not Seen'	48
Kathleen Gyssels
Part II: Colonial Locations: Imperialism and the Production of Place
4. Frontier Politics: French, Portuguese and Amerindian Alliances between the Amazon and Cayenne, 1680–1697	69
Silvia Espelt-Bombin
5. Producing the Periphery	91
Jonna M. Yarrington
6. A School in Boniville? Political Skills and 'Primitives' in Guyane (1930–1969)	105
Edenz Maurice

vi Locating Guyane

7. Reclaiming Félix Éboué: Departmentalization and the Politics of Commemoration in Guyane, 1944–2012 126
 Sarah Wood

Part III: Relocating Culture: Language, Art and Identity

8. Palikur, a Language between Two Worlds 153
 Antonia Cristinoi and François Nemo
9. Maroon Art in Guyane: New Forms, New Discourses 168
 Sally Price
10. Performing and Parading Gender in Guyane's Carnival 183
 Catriona MacLeod
11. Equality and Difference: Queering Guyane? 201
 Bill Marshall
- Conclusion: Remaking Guyane? 219
 Sarah Wood and Catriona MacLeod
- Index 227