

Contents

List of Illustrations	ix
Acknowledgements	x
Note on Transliteration	xiii
List of Abbreviations	xiii
Prologue	1
Introduction: Nationalism and Memory	5
PART ONE	17
THE NATIONALIST MOVEMENT IN SUDAN 1919-1923
Transnational Perspectives
1 Rethinking Nationalism in Colonial Sudan	19
2 The Spring of the Colonial Nations	38
PART TWO	65
THE REVOLUTION OF 1924
Organization of the Movement and its Spread to the Provinces
3 The 1924 Revolution	67
4 The White Flag League: The Structure of the Nationalist Movement	96
5 1924 in Port Sudan and El Obeid	122
PART THREE	147
IDEOLOGY AND STRATEGIES
6 'The Word is for the Nation Alone': Telegrams, Petitions and Political Writings	149
7 A Community of Protesters: Symbols, Songs and Emotions	164

PART FOUR	177
THE 1924 PROTESTERS
Reconsidering Social Bonds after the First World War
Prologue	178
8 The Sociology of Colonial Education and the 1924 Insurgents	182
9 A Military Elite: The Army in the 1924 Revolution	206
10 ‘I was very Famous in Sūq al-‘Arabī : Nationalism and Sudanese workers	234
11 Epilogue: The Colonial Gaze, History and the Archive	255
Appendix 1: Telegrams of the White Flag League and Other Protesters	273
Appendix 2: Sources on Members of Political Associations in 1924	283
Bibliography	289
Index	309