

Table of contents

List of plates and figures	9
Acknowledgements	19
1. People and things in motion: the view from the East Tamara H. Bentley	21
Part I Circuits and exchanges
2. The maritime trading world of East Asia from the thirteenth to the seventeenth centuries Richard von Glahn	55
3. The junk trade and Hokkien merchant networks in maritime Asia, 1570–1760 James K. Chin	83
4. The trade activities of sixteenth-century Christian daimyo Ōtomo Sōrin Hiroko Nishida	113
Part II Commodities
5. From global to local: the diaspora of Asian decorative arts in colonial Latin America Donna Pierce	127
6. Trans-Pacific connections: contraband mercury trade in the sixteenth to early eighteenth centuries Angela Schottenhammer	159
7. “The Features are Esteem’d very just”: Chinese unfired clay portrait figures of Westerners William R. Sargent	195
Part III Hybrid aesthetics
8. The global keyboard: music, visual forms, and maritime trade in the early modern era Victoria Lindsay Levine	223

9. Barbarian tropes framed anew: three Qing dynasty Chinese lacquer screens of Europeans hunting 247
Tamara H. Bentley
10. Chinese porcelain, the East India Company, and British cultural identity,
1600–1800 275
Stacey Pierson
- Index 293