

CONTENTS

1 Rethinking Resistance and Colonialism	1
Nuno Domingos, Miguel Bandeira Jerónimo, and Ricardo Roque
 Part I Hidden Accounts	 33
 2 Demystifying “Millenarianism”: Oral Historical Evidence of Pukhtun Resistance and Colonial Warfare in the North-West Frontier of British India	 35
Sameetah Agha
 3 Fighters for Independence and Rural Society in Colonial Algeria	 63
Raphaëlle Branche
 4 Gender Struggle in Guinea-Bissau: Women’s Participation On and Off the Liberation Record	 85
Inês Galvão and Catarina Laranjeiro

5	Resisting the Conceptualization of Theft as Resistance and Informing as Collaboration: Capitalization Strategies on Angola's Colonial-Era Diamond Mines, 1917–1975	123
	Todd Cleveland
Part II Local Encounters		151
6	“The Barbarians War”: Colonization and Indigenous Resistance in Brazil (1650–1720)	153
	Pedro Puntoni
7	‘A Most Inconvenient Warfare’: The Impact of Rebel-Dacoits on Rural Resistance and Colonial Security After the Indian ‘Mutiny’ of 1857	175
	Jacob Smith
8	Amphibious Flight and Transboundary Water Politics: Runaway Slaves in the Lower Orinoco River Basin in the Eighteenth Century	201
	Matthew Nielsen
9	Disrupted Ecologies: Conflicting Repertoires of Colonial Rule in Early Twentieth-Century São Tomé	229
	Marta Macedo
10	Beyond Resistance and Collaboration: The “Bargains” of Cooperation in the Spanish Sahara, 1950s–1970s	251
	Andreas Stucki
Part III Transnational Processes		271
11	Colonial Resistance and Anglo-German Diplomacy: The Case of Jakob Marengo	273
	Mads Bomholt Nielsen

12	Of Internal and External Imperialisms: International Law and Confucianist Visions of Empire as Latent Resistance in the Late Qing	295
	Alexander Kais
13	The International Dimensions of Resistance: Portuguese Colonial Labour Policies and Its Critics Abroad (1944–1962)	313
	José Pedro Monteiro
	Index	339