

CONTENTS

Illustrations	vii
Preface	ix
Acknowledgements	xii
1 Writing (and reading) of colonial history	1
Part I Chronologies	15
2 Early modern European colonialism, 1490s–1815	17
3 The making of overseas empires in the long nineteenth century, 1815–1914	41
4 Colonial rule and misrule, 1914–40	61
5 The unmaking of overseas empires, 1940–75	83
Part II Themes	109
6 Land and sea: Colonialism and the environment	113
7 Crossed destinies: The people of empire	129
8 Slavery, indentured migration and empire	143
9 Settler colonialism: The British Dominions	153
10 Colonialism and the body	173
11 Colonialism and the mind	191
12 Colonialism and the soul	205
13 Representations of colonialism	219

Contents

Part III Cases	239
14 The Spanish Andes, 1780	243
15 Mauritius, 1810	255
16 Cuba, 1812	268
17 India, 1876	280
18 Burma and Vietnam, 1883–5	294
19 Global Conflict, 1900	307
20 The South Pacific, 1903	320
21 Ceylon, 1907	331
22 German Southwest Africa, 1908	344
23 Ethiopia, 1936	354
24 The Dutch East Indies, 1938	367
25 Palestine and the Middle East, 1946	380
26 Algeria, 1962	393
27 The Portuguese Empire in Africa, 1971	408
28 Western Sahara, 1975	420
29 Belgium and the Congo, 1897 and 2018	430
30 Epilogue: The legacies of empires	445
Notes	459
Further reading	496
Index	509