Introduction: The Ends of Empire: Chronologies, Historiographies, and Trajectories; Miguel Bandeira Jerónimo and António Costa Pinto

PART I: COMPETING DEVELOPMENTS: THE IDIOMS OF REFORM AND RESISTANCE
1. Development, Modernization, and the Social Sciences in the Era of Decolonization: The Examples of British and French Africa; Frederick Cooper
2. A Modernizing Empire? Politics, Culture and Economy in Portuguese Late Colonialism; Miguel Bandeira Jerónimo and António Costa Pinto

PART II: COMPARING ENDGAMES: THE MODI OPERANDI OF DECOLONIZATION
4. Imperial Endings and Small States: Disorderly Decolonization for Netherlands, Belgium and Portugal; Crawford Young
5. British, French and Portuguese Decolonization Compared: Political Culture and Strategic Options in Multilateral Consultations; Bruno Cardoso Reis
6. Exporting Britishness: Decolonisation in Africa, the British State and its Clients; Sarah Stockwell
7. Acceptable Levels? The Use and Threat of Violence in the Decolonization of British Central Africa, 1953-1965; Philip Murphy

PART III: CONFRONTING INTERNATIONALS: THE (GEO)POLITICS OF DECOLONIZATION
9. Cold War and Decolonisation in the Congo: Lumumba and the Neo-colonial Transfer of Power 1960; John Kent
10. The International Dimension of Portuguese Colonial Crisis, 1961-1968; Luís Nuno Rodrigues

Last Days of Empire; John Darwin